REFLECTION

Christ is risen, Alleluia! He is risen indeed, Alleluia! Welcome to the Transitional Cathedral, the broad tent with a wide open door. If you are joining us from beyond Christchurch I trust you are enjoying your stay here. The Cathedral is continuing to celebrate the season of Easter, and proclaiming that Christ is risen through our music, hymns, scripture readings and prayers.

Today the Cathedral is celebrating the Ascension of Our Lord. St Luke's description of the Ascension has been well explored by artists, often with Jesus' feet sticking out of a cloud or out of a ceiling. These images are intended to show that we are celebrating Jesus going before us to his Father in Heaven. We need to remember that the Ascension is still proclaiming the full humanity of Christ. We affirm that Jesus ascended into heaven with his humanity, and not just as a divine being of some sort. Jesus is a fully human being who is with God in heaven, and the union of his humanity and his divinity remains.

We give thanks therefore, that Jesus takes the experience of being human, with all its joys, contradictions and suffering, into the presence and being of God. Before God, he offers prayer eternally for us. His prayer is full of compassion, for he knows what it is to be in our shoes.

While the Ascension is about a real human being in the presence of God, it reminds us that Jesus is the beginning of our salvation, that where he is gone we hope to follow. It also tells us that God was present with us when Jesus walked on this earth, and that through the Holy Spirit he continues to be present with us now. Furthermore, we continue to be his body here on earth, and Jesus is present among us in our communion together.

General Synod has been meeting over the last week in New Plymouth. Once again the question of whether or not same-sex relationships can be blessed was a major topic for discussion. This is a question that has divided our Church deeply, including this Diocese. As I understand it, General Synod has adopted a way forward that will allow those with strong convictions on both sides of this debate to hold their position with integrity and without being disciplined. In certain circumstances it will soon be possible for a same-sex civil marriage to be blessed in the Anglican Church, but clergy and parishes who disagree will be respected and not be compelled to offer these blessings. No change to our doctrine or to the canons and formularies of this Church regarding Christian marriage has been made. We will all have to wait for the detail to be worked through to see what this is going to look like.

This week it is with much regret that I received a letter of resignation from our Assistant Organist, Harry Meehan. Harry would like to return to Ireland with his partner in October this year, and so will be with us until the end of term three (and will participate in the choir trip to Japan). Harry is a brilliant organist and we have been lucky to have him here for the last two years. He has also made his mark in the City with his contribution to music making in the wider community, Cathedral Grammar and Christ's College. Please enjoy him while we still have him with us.

May God bless you all this week.

Dean Lawrence

EXPLORING THE CHRISTIAN FAITH

Where ever you are on your faith journey the Transitional Cathedral extends a warm welcome to you. Whether you feel sure and confident in your faith or whether you are full of questions, doubts and uncertainties you are very welcome. At this Cathedral we seek to do our best to support one another in our shared searching and questioning, knowing none of us will ever fully understand it all.

If you would like to know more about the Christian faith then please contact a member of our clergy team, who will be happy to meet with you. You are also welcome to email The Rev'd Ben Randall at assistantcurate@christchurchcathedral.co.nz
